

SULZER CONFIDENT OF IMPEACHMENT TRIAL OUTCOME

Friends Assert He Has No Intention of Resigning to Escape Ordeal of Promised Lengthy Hearing.

STAGE ALL SET FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

Legal Preliminaries of Impeachment Proceedings Will Not be Delayed, Says Judge—Defense is Guarded.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 18.—The stage is set for the opening at noon Thursday of the impeachment of William Sulzer, governor of New York, before the first high court of impeachment ever convened in this state to pass upon charges filed against her chief executive.

While Gov. Sulzer conferred Wednesday with his counsel, members of the Assembly board of managers, who will act as prosecutors, discussed with their legal assistants methods of procedure on Thursday. Members of the court of appeals and the senators who jointly compose the high court, also mapped out their plan of action.

Friends of the impeached executive repeated their assertions that he is in good spirits, confident of a verdict that will clear his name of the stigma cast upon it by the adoption of the articles of impeachment. They were no less certain that he had no thought of resigning and thus escaping the ordeal of trial, and that he was a lengthy trial. In the other hand his opponents were free in expressing the opinion that after the legal preliminaries had been swept away and the taking of testimony had begun, the governor would surrender his office rather than face cross-examination.

From the governor's camp came no intimation of his defense. There were only surmises. These, in effect, were that his counsel first would attack the validity of the impeachment on the ground that the assembly had no authority to adopt the articles while in extraordinary session; and that efforts would be made to prevent senators who served on the Frawley committee and those who may be called upon to testify from sitting as judges.

If the preliminary objections are overruled—and it was the general opinion Monday night that they would be—it is understood that the governor will base his defense upon the claim that whatever he may have done prior to his inauguration last January, none of his acts while executive constitutes a high crime or a misdemeanor.

The belief that the preliminary legal technicalities will be quickly disposed of, is strengthened by the assertion of Chief Judge Edgar M. Cullen of the court of appeals, who will preside over the deliberations of the high court.

"I anticipate no delay either in the opening or the course of the trial," he declared. "I expect we shall be able to decide the preliminary legal questions that may be raised in a few hours and proceed with the taking of testimony possibly on Friday morning."

Parker to Assist.
The proceedings to order of order of voting and other details, Judge Cullen said, probably would be decided by a committee composed both of judges of the court and senators.

An important development Wednesday was the announcement by Chairman Levy of the assembly managers that John B. Stanchfield had been added to the prosecutor's legal battery. Other attorneys who will aid in the prosecution are Alton B. Parker, Edgar T. Brackett, Eugene Lamb Richards, Isidore J. Kresel and Hiram Todd.

According to present plans, as soon as the senate has formally convened Thursday a motion picture will be shown in the senate chamber. The judges will then go to the senate chamber. Chief Judge Cullen will preside. The board of managers of the assembly will then appear and present the articles of impeachment. At this point Gov. Sulzer will be called to present his answer. This will be presented by his lawyers, although it is expected that before it is given the disputed points will be raised by his counsel.

PRIEST HIRED ANOTHER FLAT TO HIDE HIMSELF

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—That Hans Schmidt, Jekyll-Hyde priest, whose double life was exposed Sunday when he was arrested and confessed the murder of Anna Amuller, hired another apartment in which he presumably planned to conceal himself, was developed from police discoveries Wednesday.

Evidence also was found linking closer the lives of Schmidt and his alleged counterfeiting partner, the unlicensed dentist, Dr. Ernest Muret. Papers found in his office indicated Muret had left London for some offense committed while practicing medicine there and had practiced in Chicago under the name of Dr. "Arturo Held," leaving that city and dropping the name of Held some time subsequent to July, 1909. Although Muret claimed he met Schmidt only six months ago, evidence has appeared, that they had had business relations as long as two years ago and that the dentist long had knowledge of Schmidt's counterfeiting experiments.

Dist. Atty. Whitman returned to the city today from a brief vacation and took the Schmidt investigation in hand. Coincidentally, the federal authorities stepped into the case with warrants for Schmidt and Muret charging that they had in possession implements with which to make counterfeit money.

The detectives still scouring the neighborhood in which Anna Amuller was murdered, found Wednesday that three days after the crime a man resembling Schmidt but giving another name rented on Eighth av. apartment for which he paid a month's rent. Two suitcases which were left there contained photographs of Miss Amuller and Schmidt. Baby clothes made up and patiently embroidered and material for many other garments—enough for a complete outfit for an infant, were among the contents of the grips.

Some of Schmidt's things were there too—clothing marked with the name "Van Dyke", one of his aliases; a false mustache and false goatee, and numerous other articles.

Several interesting discoveries resulted from the search of Dr. Muret's office Wednesday. That he had practiced in Chicago under another name, was indicated by a certificate issued by "The American College of Medicine—Therapeutics—Armed."

Attached to the certificate is an excellent photograph of Dr. Muret with the attestation of a notary that he was the person described in the certificate, residing at 476 North Clark street in the city of Chicago and practicing medicine.

Muret finally admitted under questioning Wednesday that he had known Schmidt at least a year.

MEXICAN ELECTION IS AWAITED WITH KEEN INTEREST

Policy of United States in Diplomatic Situation Will Likely Make Its Appearance Following Results.

LITTLE INTEREST IN HUERTA'S MESSAGE

Belief Grows That General Will Not Participate as Candidate—Would Not be Recognized by America.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—So far as the Washington end is concerned it became known Wednesday night that no move is contemplated in the Mexican situation at present. The elections of Oct. 26 are now awaited here with keen interest and the next step in the policy of the United States is likely to make its appearance thereafter.

Administration officials read excerpts of Gen. Huerta's message to the Mexican congress published here Wednesday but no formal comment was made. It is understood that the administration does not attach much importance to the document, though there are passages in it which did not pass without careful notice.

Huerta's statement that the "tenseness of diplomatic relations" was "with the government of the United States, although luckily not with that people" invoked little attention as the same sentiment had been previously voiced by the Mexican City officials and the answer from here was the enthusiastic reception which Pres. Wilson received when he addressed congress and the speeches supporting him made by republicans and democrats in congress.

The references to the expiration of the period during which American warships were authorized to remain in Mexican waters caused some discussion. Inasmuch as the ships are permitted to remain another month, or until after the general elections are held, no statement of policy in this connection is likely to be made until that time. Informally officials let it be known that the vessels would be kept in Mexican waters indefinitely if the United States deemed it necessary for the protection of the nationals.

Bryan Cables Lind.
Secy. Bryan sent a cablegram to John Lind at Vera Cruz, advising him of the government's view of the Huerta message but the contents of the dispatch were not disclosed.

Huerta's declaration, also that he hoped to see the United States government to a successor while not giving any direct information as to his intention not to be a candidate, strengthened the belief here that he would not figure in the election. These points may be the basis for the resumption of negotiations, but the United States does not intend to go forward with them unless the Mexican authorities are disposed to reopen the parleys.

In some quarters here, there is strong disposition to doubt whether there will be a constitutional election in Mexico on Oct. 26. Constitutionalist representatives point out that the election only about a month away nobody knows who the candidates are or what the platform will say.

Should an election be held the attitude the United States would take is doubtful. Recognition will under no circumstances be accorded Victoriano Huerta. This is known from unquestioned sources. Reports that Huerta intended to seek the election of some friend who might subsequently appoint Huerta to a post in the cabinet, and resign in his favor are causing some uneasiness for, if the election is constitutional the position of the United States toward Huerta then might be embarrassing. It is said to be quite probable however, that no matter who is elected next month the Washington government will not look ahead for some time. It is convinced that stability and peace have been accomplished and that the choice of an executive is approved by the Mexican people.

WHEN A MAN IN PUBLIC LIFE WISHES TO TALK ABOUT MONEY THESE DAYS—

THAW NOW WAITS TO KNOW HIS FATE

Reaches Concord in Joint Custody of Marshal and Sheriff For Hearing on Extradition Before Governor.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 18.—Harry Kendall Thaw was brought to the capital of New Hampshire Wednesday afternoon to await a hearing before Gov. Feltner on Tuesday next on the matter of his extradition to New York. If extradition is refused, he will be a free man; if it is granted, his case will be reviewed by the United States district court on a writ of habeas corpus, and perhaps appealed to the supreme court of the United States.

Thaw reached here from Littleton, N. H., shortly before 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. A crowd which cheered him with lusty enthusiasm, gathered at the station and followed him to his hotel. Wednesday night he remained in seclusion, conferring with William A. Stone, ex-governor of Pennsylvania, who has acted as counsel for Thaw and personal representative of the Thaw family.

The extradition proceedings will be staged either in the council chamber or in the state chamber. The state house stands almost directly opposite the Eagle hotel where Thaw is in the joint custody of the U. S. Marshal Nute and Sheriff Drew of Coos county. Thaw slept in the "throne room" of the Eagle hotel quarters made famous as the conference headquarters of New Hampshire politicians in days gone by and since occupied by Taft and Roosevelt on their campaign tours. The curious, sympathetic and the enthusiastic greeted Thaw at every station between here and Littleton. Two women school teachers, a minister and a venerable man of 80 were among the many who wished him good luck and good cheer.

FINISH FIGHT SAYS COLONEL

Roosevelt Insists That Bull Moosers Must Not Unite With the Republicans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—"We are in this fight to the finish regardless of results. We have only just begun to fight."

This was the message from Theodore Roosevelt, conveyed to progressive members of the house by Rep. Hinebaugh of Illinois, at a special conference Thursday. Hinebaugh was summoned to New York recently by the former president where the colonel made it plain to him that he is opposed to amalgamation with the republicans.

Hinebaugh told his fellow progressives that the colonel is optimistic as to the future of the party and approved the organization of the progressive congressional campaign committee.

Will We Greet Old Friends From the Leeper Park Zoo For Just a Dime, Ten Cents

Will South Bend people get to see the animals they used to see for nothing for the small price of one dime, ten cents? Wednesday afternoon a letter came into the city clerk's office from the Ramona zoo at Grand Rapids asking for the cost of a license for an exhibit here during the farm show. Grand Rapids sounded strangely familiar when the question of animals was brought up.

Immediately speculation arose as to whether or not the bear, the monkeys, the boats and the other animals that formerly had their quarters at Leeper park, were among those that will be on display here.

Would the ears of the people who used to spend their idle moments at Leeper park watching the animals for nothing ring next week with the cry of the barker telling of the instructive and educational advantage of seeing the same beasts—not omitting the fact that it costs a thin dime.

When the animals were suddenly taken away from their cages at Leeper park this summer there was much discussion about the matter here among animal lovers who didn't know for the change until after they had been sold to a zoo in Grand Rapids.

That was in the middle of the summer when the children were in the habit of going to the cages and watching the inhabitants of the zoo.

After that they did not get to see Mr. Bruin in his famous dance, the rabbits were no longer there to do the once notorious Bunny hug, and even South Bend's goats had been gotten by Grand Rapids, all for $40.

Now there is a possibility that all of these things may come back to South Bend, but it will cost one dime, ten cents, to see them. That is, if they come.

WON'T PROMISE TO BE GOOD IN U. S.

Mrs. Pankhurst Indignant That She Should Be Expected to Promise to Behave Herself While in This Country.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—Miss Christabel Pankhurst, speaking for her mother, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, declared Thursday that no one had any right to exact a promise from Mrs. Pankhurst as to her conduct during her coming visit to the United States.

"My mother feels that she will be warmly welcomed and she feels hurt at some of the criticism published in American newspapers," declared Christabel.

"My mother will make no promises as to her conduct. She feels that no one has any right to expect her to make promises. She is rational and it would be an insult to her mentality for the U. S. government to say to her: 'You cannot come into this country if it is your purpose to form dynamite squads and arson squads to further the cause of suffrage in America.'"

"My mother is going to America next month. In New York she will be the guest of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, who is here warm friend. In other cities she will be the guest of women equally prominent. She will act as she likes and she will pay no heed to the criticism which she will be directed against her. She will be proud to visit every city of consequence in the U. S. and we on this side know that her voice and her presence will act as a stimulus to the cause in America."

"It is only right that this visit should be made, for many women from the U. S. have helped us in England. Miss Zelle Emerson of Michigan served time for us and hunger struck for us and others have done the same for our cause."

HERE'S REASON, CHRISTY.
WALTHAM, Eng., Sept. 18.—Militant suffragettes continued their depredations Thursday by setting fire to the mansion of W. Parnell, a rich land owner. The mansion was unoccupied at the time and the flames had gained such headway before they were discovered that the costly structure could not be saved. A number of rare pieces of art were destroyed.

BAR CONFEDERATE VETERANS FROM G. A. R. PARADE

Enforcement of Order Excluding Women and Civilians Prevents Forrest Camp in Participating in Procession.

RULING NECESSARY TO EXCLUDE WOMEN

Col. Dickinson Regrets Action and Explains It Was Not Made Because of Ill Feeling. Men in Blue Invited to Camp.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 17.—Enforcement of an order excluding women and civilians from the 47th annual parade of the Grand Army of the Republic Wednesday prevented the N. R. Forrest camp of United Confederate Veterans from participating in the parade. Clad in their gray uniforms the southerners were preparing to form in the line of march with Forsyth Post No. 15 of Toledo, Ohio, when they were informed of the order.

An invitation to join the parade had been tendered Col. L. T. Dickinson, commander of the Forrest camp, by Col. Henry N. Hanson, commander of the Forsyth post. Just when they were ready to take their places, Col. Hanson informed Col. Dickinson that the commander of the department of Ohio, Col. W. R. Warnock, had been instructed to bar every one from the parade except Union veterans. Col. Hanson expressed deep regret over the incident. The Confederate veterans also appeared distressed, but as they marched quietly back to their headquarters they were greeted with cheers by the union veterans.

No Ill Feeling.
In a statement Col. Dickinson of the Confederates said:

"We regretted the incident very much but I believe our comrades, and especially those in the Forsyth post, were even more distressed. We hold no ill feeling toward the rank and file of the boys in blue. We are tendering an invitation to visit our camp tomorrow night."

The following explanation of the incident was made by Commander in Chief Alfred R. Beers of the G. A. R.: "Yesterday morning the order was issued by the department of Ohio, Col. W. R. Warnock, that no Confederate soldiers be permitted to take part in the Grand Army of the Republic parade. I also understood that these women were from the state of Ohio. Yesterday afternoon the order was issued by the department of Ohio, Col. W. R. Warnock, that no Confederate soldiers be permitted to take part in the Grand Army of the Republic parade. I also understood that these women were from the state of Ohio. Yesterday afternoon the order was issued by the department of Ohio, Col. W. R. Warnock, that no Confederate soldiers be permitted to take part in the Grand Army of the Republic parade. I also understood that these women were from the state of Ohio."

BANDITS HOLD UP AUTO TOURISTS

Robbed St. Louis People of $2,000 in Cash and Jewelry and Car—One is Captured.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 18.—Herman C. G. Luytjes and party of five of St. Louis, on a motor trip west, were held up by highwaymen near Bryan, O., early Thursday morning and robbed of their automobile, $2,000 in cash, a gold purse and a considerable quantity of jewelry.

Luytjes ran to a farm house and gave the alarm by telephone. Sheriff Weinland gave pursuit, tracking the machines, which were found at another farm house, out of gasoline. As Weinland approached he was fired on from ambush and badly wounded in the head and arm, but grappled with one of his assailants and arrested him. The prisoner gave the name of R. W. Duffy, 26, of Toledo. At Wauseon, O., two other suspects were taken from a passenger train.
